Peppa's Pumpkin Party

Fun-filled Halloween antics with Peppa and her friends! Perfect for your youngest readers, Peppa's spooky party is the only one you need to know about this Halloween. Read this together and have fun identifying party guests in their spooky costumes

Potion Commotion

A magical rhyme from a Roald Dahl Funny Prize winner, this charming picture book is ideal for Halloween - cheeky rhymes, magic spells, food, hungry dragons, and a little witch the whole family will fall in love with. And it comes with a free wand, so it'll help you out with your

Halloween Inspired Reading

This month, we celebrated our love of Halloween through our spooky new reads. The children enjoyed the opportunity to sit in our library area and enter worlds filled with witches and wizards. Therefore, our October newsletter will focus on magical read recommendations.

What's even funnier than Winnie? Winnie plus ghosties! (Whoo-hoo.) Here are four spooky stories about your favourite witch and her cat, bursting with funny frights galore.

A Halloween-themed installment from Kes Gray's beloved series – this time, Daisy's off trick-or-treating for the first time, and she's not sure it's going to be as fun as everyone thinks it is.

If you haven't come across these books before, Daisy is like a blend of Tom Gates and Horrid Henry – and she'll definitely become another of your firm favourites.

The kind of beautiful hardback you'll want to proudly display in prime position on your bookshelves, this collection contains stories from the greatest names in literature – spooky stories that raise every hair on the back of your neck, and make you savour every whispered word.

Mr Fraser's recommended read

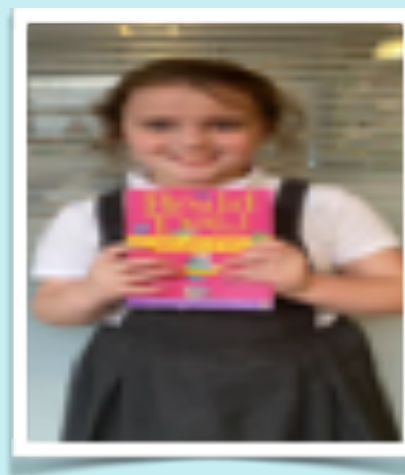

If you're a keen gardener like Mr Fraser then this may be the book for you! My Garden World by Monty Don is a celebration of every living creature that we all share our environment with. This year has given us the enforced opportunity to learn more about the fascinating natural world around us. Whether you live in the countryside or the town, Monty's observations and insights are relevant to each and every one of us. My Garden World is Monty Don's personal journey through the natural year, month by month, season by season, observed from the immediate world around him.

BOOK RECOMMENDATION FROM BEAU MCMAHON - MATILDA

I have loved reading this story because I have learnt new words and discovered the meanings. Matilda is extremely clever and loves to learn new thing like me. My favourite part is when Lavender put the newt in the jug for Mrs Trunchbull.
