

Other Poetry Books to Try...

I am the Seed that Grew the Tree by National Trust, A Poem for Every Day of the Year by Allie Esiri, A First Poetry Book by Pie Corbett and Gaby Morgan and Michael Rosen's A-Z.

Interview with Mr Gustafson
What is your favourite children's book?
Rumblestar
What book are you reading now?
The Christmas by Tom Fletcher with my daughter
If you could be any character in a book who would it be?
Danny from Danny the Champion of the World because he is content with what he has in life.
Where is your favourite place to read?
In the garden.
What kind of non-fiction books do you like to read?
History and football books.

Looking for something new to read?

We've been on a mission to dig out the best books to look forward to!

Our team has been taking a look at some of the new 8-12) coming up this term. We've picked out ten top recommendations to watch out for from January to April 2022.

Last term, Miss McCabe had some helpers to help create our SVP reading newsletter. The pupils enjoyed interviewing staff about their favourite reads and also researching high quality books you may want in to read in 2022.

Interview with Mrs Borrill
What is your favourite children's book?

Anything by Jon Klassen but my favourite is 'Have You Seen My Hat?'

What book are you reading now?

Midnight Library

If you could be any character in a book who would it be?

Someone from a Roald Dahl book, maybe one of The Twits.

Where is your favourite place to read?

In the park or the garden.

What kind of non-fiction books do you like to read?

I like gardening books and books about history.

How often do you read?

Every day with class and every night before bed.

World Poetry Day

On Monday 21st March, we celebrated World Poetry Day by completing lots of wonderful poetry related activities in our classrooms. Mrs Curran even held a special celebration assembly. Please see class SeeSaw pages and Twitter for more information